About the composers:

Howard Hanson - b. 1896 - Composer and teacher. Director of the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester for many years.

Charles Ives - 1874-1954 - American composer. Son of a bandmaster. Educated at Yale University.

Ingolf Dahl - b. 1912 - Born in Hamburg, Germany. Immigrated to the U.S.A. in 1935. Conductor of Zurich opera. Active as performer (pianist) composer and teacher (University of Southern California). Student of Stravinsky.

Alexander Glazounov - 1865-1936 - Russian composer. Born in St. Petersburg (now Leningrad). Student of Rimsky-Korsakov.

Gunther Schuller - b. 1925 - Composer, performer (French horn).
Dean of the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston.

Modeste Moussorgsky - 1835-1881 - Russian composer. Self taught except for early piano lessons from his mother. Composed several operas but is best know for "Boris Godounov", his transcription for orchestra of Ravel's "Pictures at an Exhibition", and "A Night on Bald Mountain" - a symphonic poem.
